

77TH 4-H/FFA MARKET ANIMAL SHOW & SALE 2023 RULES AND REGULATIONS

These rules can be amended or added to by the MAS Board of Directors at any time up until May 3, 2023.

Please look for notices on policy or rule changes throughout the year.

Refer to www.marketanimalshow.org or Facebook page: 4-H & FFA Market Animal Show and Sale.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 situation, dates, locations, and rules listed below are subject to change. The MAS Board of Directors reserve the rights to make said changes.

The mission of the Augusta County 4-H/FFA Market Animal Show is to encourage positive youth development through 4-H/FFA livestock projects. The primary focus of the program is to assist youth in developing life skills such as teamwork, accepting responsibility, developing a strong work ethic, and exhibiting good character. In addition, the program strives to teach young people about agriculture and agribusiness and hopes to create positive agricultural awareness in the community, while promoting community development.

The following rules and regulations serve as an exhibitor code of conduct. It is an agreement, formal or implied, between the participants, volunteers, and management of the show.

This agreement's purpose is to:

- Ensure the overall well-being of animals exhibited.
- Ensure the use of commonly accepted practices in preparing and exhibiting animals for show.
- Maintain a safe and wholesome food supply.
- Maintain the intent and integrity of animal competitions and displays for future generations.

The objectives of this Show and Sale are to:

- Demonstrate that it is practical to produce cattle, hogs, goats, and sheep on adapted farms in this area and to show the advantage of good breeding and the use of a balanced ration in feeding livestock.
- Train youth in the proper handling, fitting, and showing of livestock.
- Demonstrate practical economics of purchasing, producing, and marketing livestock.

Policies

1. The 2023 Market Animal Show & Sale will be held May 3rd – 6th at Expo, Fishersville.

5. Checks will be mailed from the MAS Treasurer or designee within 30 days of the sale. Checks will NOT be available for pick-up in person. The mailing address on entry cards must be correct to receive your check promptly. Premiums can be picked up after the banquet for 30 days in the Extension Office.
6. All protests must be in writing and must clearly state the complaint. All protests must be accompanied by a fee of $50.00 which shall be forfeited to the Show in case protest is not sustained, and must be delivered to the MAS Board of Directors at the time of the offense.
7. The judge, officials, ring-men and/or members of the MAS Board of Directors may dismiss exhibitors from the show ring or prohibit exhibitors from showing unruly and/or unsafe animals.
8. Any exhibitor or his representative or agent who violates any of these rules and regulations of the Augusta County 4-H/FFA Market Animal Show, may be required to forfeit all privileges and premiums and may be barred from future participation at the discretion of the MAS Board of Directors.
9. Unbecoming conduct by Augusta County 4-H or FFA members or adults may be reviewed by the MAS Board of Directors and appropriate action taken.
10. The Show and Sale is open to 4-H and FFA members in Augusta County, the City of Staunton, and the City of Waynesboro, ages 9-19 as of September 30th, 2023.
 - A. Exhibitors are NOT eligible to show after September 30th of the year they graduate from high school (or equivalent from home-schooled youth) regardless of their age or membership status.
 - B. 4-H members must be actively enrolled in 4-H Online, under Augusta County, by their species nomination date. 4-H members must complete a minimum of 6 educational hours and be in good standing with their 4-H Club.
 - C. FFA members are required to meet Virginia FFA membership requirements, participate in 6 educational hours, and be in good standing with their FFA Chapter.
 - D. MAS exhibitors are expected to assist with set-up for the MAS Show and Sale and/or clean up the day following the Sale.
11. Exhibitors must show their own animals individually in all classes including showmanship. If he or she has more than one entry per class, it must be shown by another qualified 4-H or FFA member who is registered to show. Emergency/Special situations must be presented to and decided on by the MAS Board of Directors.
12. Proper attire for the Show and Sale is required. A clean, collared shirt (tucked in) and long pants are considered proper attire. County school dress code policies will be in affect during the Show and Sale.
13. Exhibitors are responsible for being on time for all classes and sale order. Show and Sale order will be posted.

 - B. Exhibitors not in the ring when the gate closes will not show.
 - C. Exhibitors who miss their place in the line-up for the sale will be moved to the end of the species.
 - D. Board of Director members and volunteers will be available to help as needed, including penning hogs and getting those present in order.
14. Showmanship will be offered to all exhibitors according to age in the following categories: Junior (ages 9-11), Intermediate (ages 12-13), and Senior (ages 14-19). Age is determined as of September 30, 2023.
15. All animals in showmanship must be shown clean and dry with no adhesives, glues or paints.

16. Only one re-weigh per animal will be allowed. All re-weighs must take place immediately. Animals may not leave the scale area and return later for re-weigh. All animals must be dry when weighed. All blankets must be removed including the spandex types. All ear tags must be clean and legible at time of weigh-in.
17. Any animal not meeting the weight and/or grade requirements will not be eligible to be shown or sold. Any ineligible animal must leave the premises following the close of weigh-in.
18. All male animals must be castrated by species nomination.
19. General Livestock Health Guidelines:
 - A. All animals exhibited and sold in the Market Animal Show must not receive any treatment with drugs, biologics, or growth stimulants within the withdrawal time period prior to check in. Withdrawal times for drugs and biologics are all stated on the directions for use. Label directions must be followed at all times. The act of entering an animal in this show gives consent by the owner to have specimens of urine, saliva, blood or other samples from the animals or carcass taken, to be used for testing. All animals entered into competition shall be subject to testing for foreign substances that exceed acceptable levels established by the FDA, FSIS, USDA and/or EPA. (It is a Federal offense to violate this rule).
 - B. Treating an animal, internally or externally, with an irritant or counter-irritant or other substance to artificially change its conformation, appearance, and/or behavior for the show is unacceptable. There will be no filling by means of a stomach pump or drench. The use of inhumane/abusive fitting, showing and/or handling practices will not be tolerated. Any animal found to be erroneously entered or artificially altered by changing the natural conformation or the color of the hair, wool or hide in any way, shall be evaluated by the MAS Board of Directors and any veterinarian or expert appointed.
 - C. All livestock must be provided with adequate water and the opportunity to drink during the Show and following the Sale.
 - D. Intentional misrepresentation of an animal in any way including age of the animal, ownership, prior show activity, or other misinformation provided by the exhibitor is prohibited.
 - E. Federal Law requires a Health Certificate (Certificate of Veterinary Inspection or CVI) for any livestock transported across state lines. Some animals sold at the Market Animal Sale are invariably exported from Virginia. While exhibitors are not required to obtain a health certificate (CVI) to enter the show and sale, all animals MUST meet health requirements such that a CVI could be issued if needed, to be eligible for the show and sale. Specifically, animals must not be manifesting signs of infectious, contagious, or communicable disease. Additionally, any animal that cannot rise from a recumbent position or cannot walk, including but not limited to, those with broken appendages, severed tendons or ligaments, nerve paralysis, fractured vertebral column or metabolic conditions will not be eligible to participate in the show or sale.
20. All exhibitors, parents and other helpers must be off the fairgrounds by 10:30 p.m. every night, unless extended by the Market Animal Show Board of Directors. No overnight camping allowed. The fairgrounds will re-open at 6:00 a.m. each morning on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.
21. In the event of an injury or illness of an animal while at the show, the Board of Directors reserves the right to make any necessary decision, with the consultation of a licensed veterinarian, including but not limited to not allowing the animal to be shown or sold on the floor. The well-being of the animal will be the top priority in any situation.
22. Animals will only be sold one time and will be to the benefit of the exhibitor only.
23. All exhibitors are eligible to nominate 3 animals per species or 2 animals + 1 family alternate. For family alternates: 1 animal per species per immediate family can be nominated. To utilize the family animal, you must first have an animal nominate in that species.
24. Exhibitors may bring 3 animals per species to final weigh-in; however, the first and second animals to make weight and grade will be shown and sold.
